SUMMARY

Expert in law and research with a strong international and interdisciplinary profile

- Public speaking, professional education for CEOs and management, and consultancy (25+ years' experience)
- International and interdisciplinary research with a focus on legal theory and qualitative methods, and with successful research funding applications (20+ years' experience)
- Higher education: university lecturer, course director, course development, budget responsibility and academic leadership (25+ years' experience)
- Legal practice: court clerk, junior judge, legal counsel, pro bono legal representative (+20 years' experience)

I have lived, worked and studied in multiple countries across Europe, the Middle East, East Africa, and Australia. My first education and profession was in theatre, and I had my own theatre company before entering academia. I am passionate about creative processes; interrelations between technologies, humans, animals and plants.

TEACHING ACTIVITIES (a selection)

Since 1997 and until now (2024) I have taught in total ca 7 650 hours on bachelor level master level (LU, GU, Lille, LTU), and on PhD level (LU; GU; KU; MU; LTU; Uppsala University, Sweden; ITU; University of Copenhagen, Denmark; and Lille). Subjects taught include (a selection): law and AI, law and biotechnology, international law, jurisprudence, law and gender, migration law, animal jurisprudence, Islamic law, human rights law, constitutional law, PhD research methodology. I specialize in teaching PhD and early career research and writing skills workshops. I have recently (2024-25) co-developed and are co-teaching (2025) a PhD course on 'AI and Law' for the Wallenberg AI, Autonomous Systems and Software Program – Humanities and Social Sciences (WASP-HS), hosted at UU, Sweden. I have developed and acted as course director for 9 different courses on bachelors and masters' level, including one full academic semester with four different courses.

I have acted as an expert consultant to the Raul Wallenberg Institute, LU, on law and gender pedagogy, and I conduct professional trainings for public authorities and private corporations on law and gender, including an online global course for law teachers. I have developed professional trainings in AI and Law in collaboration with AI Sweden and the Region V stra G taland, (VGR) Sweden for health care personnel. Within the GU External Executive Education, Stockholm University Executive Education, and Uppsala Executive Education, I have developed and taught modules on AI and Law for CEO:s in both private and public sectors, as well as specific courses for commercial clients. I have also developed and taught several pedagogical modules on AI and Law for High School teachers since 2024. I recurrently deliver educational and inspirational talks on AI and Law for professionals in a number of Swedish professional settings and contexts outside of academia.

In 2021 I developed two Law and AI modules for the first ever MOOC hosted by GU. I am currently co-developing the ‘AI in Theory and Practice’ interdisciplinary master program and a summer school in Higher Education with the Wallenberg AI, Autonomous Systems and Software Program – Education (WASP-ED).

ACADEMIC LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT (a selection)

Leadership (management) in academia: I have acted in academic leadership and managerial positions in a variety of capacities and functions, ranging from board member at academic institutions (the AI and digitalization advisory board to the University of Gothenburg, SAID, GU; Center for Intellectual Property (CIP), GU; and Center for Middle Eastern Studies, LU); to managing academia-society (public authority, business, NGO:s) interaction and relations (e.g., leading the School of Business, Economics and Law–RISE collaboration on AI; and the School of Business, Economics and Law–Volvo collaboration on the future of legal education, Law and AI). I have acted as managing director of entire academic-educational subjects in higher education (LU), and as course director (at GU, LU, and Lille). In addition, since 1997, I have held managerial roles in pedagogical and administrative development in a number of fields of subjects in higher education. I have acted as pedagogical leader of up to twenty staff members, with the budget responsibility that comes with such managerial positions. Between 2018 and 2021 I was the acting manager of the Migration Law Clinic at the Department of Law, GU.

Research leadership: Since defending my dissertation in 2017 I have, to date, acted as PI of eight research projects. Four of these have involved other researchers, in relation to whom I have acted in a managerial research leadership position. These four projects have involved up to five research participants in each project. As part of the projects I have been responsible for managing research budgets of up to six millions SEK. As part of one of the projects I am responsible for the academic supervision of two PhD students (they are two of my currently four PhD students). Three of the four multi person projects involve researchers from other fields than law (interdisciplinary projects), and one of the projects involve project partners from outside of academia (one government authority partner and one business partner).
